

125th Anniversary Celebration

MERYL STREEP & SAM WATERSTON

Honorary Co-Chairpersons

Saturday, August 13, 4-6 o'clock

SALISBURY ASSOCIATION OPENING EXHIBIT RECEPTION

The Academy Building, Salisbury, CT

"Life of A Community: The Lakeville Journal Celebrates 125 Years"

Exhibit runs through October 1.

Sunday, August 14, 10 - 4 o'clock

ANNIVERSARY DAY STREET FAIR

Academy Street, Salisbury, CT

The actual publication day - August 14, 1897. Live music, stilt-walkers, food stalls, children's games, community tent and a specially designed streetscape.

August 17 - September 14, times vary

THE MOVIEHOUSE FILM SERIES

The Moviehouse, Millerton, NY

"Movies Make The News, News Makes The Movies"

Four great American film classics about newspapers and reporting:

"All the President's Men", "His Girl Friday", "Citizen Kane", and "The Killing Fields". For schedule and tickets, go to www.themoviehouse.net/movies-make-the-news-film-series

Sunday, August 21, 3 o'clock

SHARON PLAYHOUSE PATIO CABARET

Sharon Playhouse, Sharon, CT

"What's in the Daily News?"

A specially produced patio cabaret celebrating The Lakeville Journal's anniversary with musical numbers, tap dancing and popular hit songs from Broadway and beyond, revolving around critics, reviews and current events.

For tickets www.sharonplayhouse.org

Friday September 16, 7:30 o'clock

THE SALISBURY FORUM PANEL

The Salisbury Forum • The Walker Auditorium, The Hotchkiss School

"The Future of American Journalism"

Brian Ross, investigative reporter and Lakeville Journal Foundation Board member moderates. Panelists: Martin Baron, former executive editor

Washington Post; Lakeville Journal editor John Coston;

and Subrata De, Executive Vice President VICE News.

As always, free to the public.

Saturday, September 17, 5 o'clock

THE NEWSPRINT JUBILEE

Town Grove, Lakeville Lake

The concluding gala reception.

For tickets, go to www.lakevillejournalfoundation.org